BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Briefly describe your occupation or business: I am currently an attorney practicing litigation and transactional real estate law in a small firm in the District of Columbia (DC). I represent individuals and business entities in civil litigation matters. I also supervise the establishment of condominium regimes in DC on behalf of housing developers.

Tell us about your student activities at Rice:

As a graduating senior I received the Outstanding Senior Award from Lovett College. I was active on the Minority Interest Committee of the Student Admissions Council and served as Co-Chair of that committee my senior year. I also volunteered and hosted students during both Visions and Owl Weekend during my time at Rice.

I was on OWWeek Advisor my junior year at St. Richardson College and senior year at Lovett College, a member of the Lovett Women's Intramural Soccer Team, the Black Student Association, MVP Gospel Chorus and a tour guide over winter breaks.

How have you been involved with Rice since graduation? I have participated in the DC Rice Alumni Planning Committee meetings and volunteered at the DC Area Send Off Party. I am a member of the Rice Alumni Volunteers for Admission (RAVA) and serve as a DC Area Alumni Interviewer. I have attended various DC Area Rice events including Shepard School of Music Performances at the Kennedy Center and most recently at the Library of Congress, talks given by President Leebron, as well as area Happy Hours. I was also fortunate to attend the 2008 Conference for Rice Alumni Leaders. Additionally, I have been an annual contributor to the Rice Annual Fund.

Are you involved with other community or professional groups? Yes, the District of Columbia Bar, American Bar Association, George Washington University Black Law Alumni Association and I am Vice President of the Capitol Park II Condominium Association, Inc.

OPTIONAL PERSONAL STATEMENT (recommended for board candidates)

I would be honored to have the opportunity to serve on the ARA Board. I truly value my time spent at Rice as an undergraduate and the various opportunities that it provided me. My father obtained his Masters in Urban Planning and Design from Rice's School of Architecture, so I was introduced to Rice at a very young age. Additionally, as a native Houstonian, I know first hand the positive impact Rice has had on the Houston community and its' growth and development. Now that I live in Washington, DC, I am also happy to see that Rice has continued to strengthen its efforts to reach out to the national community of alumni and prospective students. As evidenced by my involvement in alumni activities since I graduated, I enjoy supporting Rice and encouraging other DC Area alumni to do the same. It would be a privilege to continue my efforts as a member of the ARA Board.
