Dear alumni and friends,

We are pleased to offer our second Oceania trip of 2010, Scandinavian Splendors, considered one of the best itineraries offered by the cruise line. It's a 14-day luxury cruise onboard Regatta, sailing northern Europe and Scandinavia from London to Stockholm June 2-16. Please join us on this wonderful voyage from the white cliffs of Dover, through some of the most spectacular medieval cities of the Baltics, to the strikingly elegant and beautiful capital of Sweden.

The first port you will visit on your voyage after boarding the Regatta in Dover is medieval Zeebrugge, Belgium. From here you will have the option of traveling to the Belgian cities of Bruges, Brussels or Antwerp. Next you will continue to the Netherlands to experience a day in Amsterdam, where you can visit museums, take a ride along the canals, or journey into the countryside to see historic windmills or the fascinating porcelain works in Delft. After a day cruising the Kiel Canal, you will arrive in charming Warnemünde, Germany, where you can spend the day or enjoy a scenic drive to the German capital of Berlin. Your itinerary continues with a day in Copenhagen, followed by visits to Visby, Sweden; Riga, Latvia; and the beautifully preserved medieval town of Tallinn, Estonia. You will have three full days to explore breathtaking St. Petersburg, Russia, before continuing to Helsinki, Finland, and finally, lovely Stockholm, Sweden.

The ports on this cruise have something for everyone – you can do as much or as little as you like. At each port of call you may choose from the many exciting optional excursions offered by Oceania or you may prefer to mingle with the friendly local people at each port and wander among the bustling open-air markets and colorful harbor fronts shopping for quality local crafts. Because of the popularity of Oceania and the ports on this classic voyage, space will go very quickly. Make your reservations early!

Sincerely,

PORTS OF CALL

London (Dover), England—Famous in song and story, the white cliffs of Dover are your gateway to the sights of London, including Westminster Abbey, Trafalgar Square, Big Ben, Buckingham Palace and more. We recommend you arrive early with one of our pre-cruise pack-ages as this city has so much to see!

Bruges (Zeebrugge), Belgium—Step back in time to the 14th Century to this ancient town where the rhythm of medieval life resonates from every corner, along the narrow streets past gabled buildings and through the bustling market. A jewel of a town beribboned with picturesque canals, Bruges is a charming medieval beauty. It has been a center for lace-making since the 15th century and has many trendy boutiques and shops

Amsterdam, Netherlands — Take a boat ride along Amsterdam's charming canals past sturdy old houses and under quaint bridges. Visit one of the city's superb museums housing many of the Dutch Masters' most outstanding works or learn about Anne Frank and the city's Jewish heritage. Or, journey into the countryside and see historic windmills and the fascinating porcelain works in Delft.

Kiel Canal Transit—The Kiel Canal is a 61-mile waterway that connects the North Sea with the Baltic Sea and is a feast for the senses: the beauty of the surrounding countryside, the sight of cows grazing on the hillsides, and the warm heartfelt greetings of the German people as the ship sails serenely along. Willkommen in Deutschland!

Berlin (Warnemünde), Germany—It takes barely 5 minutes to walk from the boat landing to the town center of Warnemünde, but you will find it is one the most beautiful traditional German resorts on the Baltic Coast. White beaches, quaint little fishermen's cottages, inviting pubs and small boutiques provide Warnemünde with its particular charm.

Copenhagen, Denmark — The city with a royal touch is one of Europe's oldest and most wonderful capitals and is one of the safest, most beautiful and culturally rich cities in the world. The Danish monarchy is the oldest in the world. Her Majesty Queen Margrethe II, who can trace her ancestry back to the Viking Age, resides right in the center of the city. A showcase for world-famous Danish design and craftsmanship, Copenhagen seems to have been designed with shoppers in mind. The best buys are such luxury items as amber, crystal, porcelain, silver, and furs.

Visby, Sweden—Medieval houses, ruined fortifications, churches, and cottage lined cobble lanes make this delightful hilly town of about 20,000 people look like a fairy-tale place. Thanks to a very gentle climate, the roses that grow along many of the town's facades bloom even in November. Visby might be better known to some people today as the home of Pippi Longstocking. Movies featuring the popular red-headed girl with pigtails were filmed here.

Riga, Latvia — Once called the 'Paris of the Baltics,' Riga has regained its status as a cosmopolitan capital with dozens of museums and arguably the greatest number of 20th-century Art Nouveau homes in all of Europe. Riga, as the most vibrant and cosmopolitan city of the Baltics, offers countless opportunities to sample both local cuisine and international favorites. Latvia produces a number of excellent and award-winning beers which are widely available.

Tallinn, Estonia — Though lesser known than many other ports in the former Soviet Union, this is one of the most spectacular medieval cities in the Baltic and the capital of the recently independent republic of Estonia. Step back in time as you walk through this beautifully pre-served medieval town and discover its upper and lower levels, the Guild Houses, the churches and squares, the famous Apothecary Shop and the exquisite Town Hall.

St. Petersburg, Russia—Peter the Great styled this to be his Venice of the North. Italian architects created baroque facades to line the banks of the Neva River. You'll want to see the spires of the Saints Peter and Paul Fortress, the blue domes of the Ouspensky Cathedral and, of course, some of the million masterworks of art contained in the Hermitage galleries of the Winter Palace. Especially notable are the partially restored palaces of Russian czars.

Helsinki, Finland — Admire the city's stunning modern architecture, visit its lovely parks and bustling open-air market. Take a harbor cruise past forests, beaches, villas and a ruined Suomenlinna fortress that spans five islands. After a devastating fire in 1808, Helsinki was totally rebuilt, mostly in the neo-classical Empire style. The city has wonderful museums, and a colorful harbor front featuring quality local crafts, and friendly, cheerful people.

Stockholm, Sweden—Sweden's strikingly elegant and beautiful capital, Stockholm, was founded in the 13th century and is situated on 14 small islands joined by bridges crossing open bays and narrow channels. Entering through this archipelago, you will be greeted by yachts. From the first written mention of the city, in 1252, to the last word on Swedish street fashion today, Stockholm is a world capital in the truest sense.
